Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1-8, 10-11 and 14-21 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by US 3,168,221 to Parker.

Parker shows a flexible bottle stopper as seen in Fig. 3, having a first end 15 adapted to fit into the opening of a container 15, a second end 19 adjacent to the first end and extending above the opening of the container, see Fig. 1, an air passage 22 extending longitudinally beyond the length of the first end in a direction away from the second end, see Figs. 1 and 3, the second end extends about 0.1 inches and is sloped about 50 degrees to aid pouring and provide a visual location of the pouring end and the air passage, an anti-drip recess 20, see column 1, lines 52-57, the air passage and the pouring spout are spaced at 180 degrees, a cap 24 attached to the stopper by a flexible strand 25 and seals at the ring 26.

In reference to claims 18 and 19:

Parker shows a stopper and spout to be used on a container for pouring the content of the container that include the steps of visually determining the proper orientation of the spout and tilting the container in that orientation to pour.

In reference to claims 20 and 21:

Parker shows a stopper manufactured with the characteristics described above.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claim 9 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over US 3,168,221 to Parker in view of US 4,128,189 to Baxter.

Parker shows all claimed features as discussed above but is silent about the spout having different colors. Baxter shows a spout and cover of different colors. It would have been obvious to a person with ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to use any various color in the device of Parker as taught by Baxter in order to fit into a harmonious color style with the remainder of the container including the label on the container.

5. Claims 12 and 13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over US 3,168,221 to Parker in view of US 5,228,603 to Pham et al.

Parker shows all claimed features as discussed above except for the filter material being of the same material as the spout and a flexible strand at about 120 degrees from the spout. Pham show a spout with a filter material 76 made of the same material as the spout and a flexible strand 312 at about 120 degrees from the spout 305. It would have been obvious to a person with ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify the device of Parker to include a filter made of the same material as the spout and a stand as taught by Pham to facilitate manufacture of the spout by making the spout and the filter in one molding process and having a stand to prevent miss placing the cap.

Response to Arguments

6. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1, 17, 18 and 20 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

7. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Beall shows a fitment for container. Mahler shows an adjustable pouring spout. Anderson shows a side-pouring dispenser.

8. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
